

Recipe for Success

An Intensive Two-Day Practical Corporate Team Building Programme

WHAT

This programme offers a detailed understanding of how teams form and the roles that exist throughout the stages of a project.

Not simply a corporate team building activity this programme provides real knowledge of how effective teams can be built ending with a competitive team scenario.

HOW

We use BELBIN© assessment tools for the formal exercises. This is a personality profiling approach based on 3 roles – social, thinking and action.

We then put your new knowledge to the test through a practical team cooking exercise under the eye of a professional chef, Tom Lewis (BBC Great British Menus, Monachyle Mhor).

WHO

The programme content is aimed at existing or newly formed organisational teams of middle or senior management level. It provides an understanding of how to manage teams in a practical context. Minimum delivery of 8 people.

The programme is delivered by BELBIN© accredited assessor Vicky Russell.

WHERE

Day One is delivered in private training facilities.

Day Two is delivered on-site at Mhor Fish, Callander.

Each day is run from 9:30am to 4:30pm. Overnight accommodation can be arranged separately.

HOW MUCH

£400 plus VAT per person including hospitality, course materials and online assessments. A discount can be accommodated if private facilities for day one can be offered in-house.
